

MEDIA ADVISORY
For 9:30 am Monday, February 1
National Press Club, Washington, D.C.

‘Clean Energy Week’ Feb 1-5 to Showcase Urgent Need
For Clean Energy Jobs, Energy Efficiency, Climate Solutions

90+ National Organizations Urge Passage of Clean Energy Policy

News Conference to be Webcast Live

WHAT: Nearly 100 organizations in the renewable energy, energy efficiency and environmental arenas – representing hundreds of companies and tens of thousands of workers and citizens – are joining forces to launch Clean Energy Week February 1-5 to focus on the national imperative to enact comprehensive clean energy policy as a means of creating vast numbers of new jobs, ensuring U.S. global leadership in the emerging clean energy era, enhancing national security and preserving our planet for the generations to follow.

The news conference will be webcast live in streaming video with an opportunity for questions for those who are not in the Washington, D.C., area or who cannot attend in person. Preregistration for webcast is required and is now available at www.visualwebcaster.com/CleanEnergy.

Clean Energy Week activities will emphasize the shared concept that climate solutions, renewable energy and energy efficiency policies are essential engines of job creation and economic growth. For more information and a list of events, please go to: <http://www.cleanenergyweek.org>.

WHO:

- Michael Eckhart, American Council on Renewable Energy (ACORE)
- Kateri Callahan, Alliance to Save Energy
- Jeff Anderson, Clean Economy Network
- Reed Hundt, Coalition for the Green Bank
- Christopher Van Atten, American Businesses for Clean Energy

WHEN: Monday, February 1, 2010
9:30 am

WHERE: National Press Club; Holeman Lounge
14th & F Streets, NW
Washington, DC 20045

For further information, please contact Ronnie Kweiler, Alliance to Save Energy, 202 530-2203;
rkweiler@ase.org.